

GOLFERS COMBAT RAVINE TOURNEY

L. A. Sanford Leads Field in Chevy Chase Club's
Spring Contest.

Playing under very adverse conditions the 200 odd golfers in the Chevy Chase Club's spring golf tournament today were met with a driving down-pour of rain, which not only slowed the course very extensively, but also made it possible for the ball to bury itself in the fairway.

L. A. Sanford of the Potomac Park Club led the field up to noon today with a card of 82. Sanford started early this morning and avoided part of the rain, which began to fall heavily just before noon. W. C. Prestiss, sr., of Kirkcaldie was in second place, with 84, and R. E. Chapin of Columbia was next, with 85.

Other Scores Up to Noon
Other scores turned in up to noon were as follows: A. D. V. Burr, Washington, 88; James A. White, Jr., Bannockburn, 90; E. A. Morse, Columbia, 92; Charles E. Kautner, Chevy Chase, 92; G. B. Doyle, Columbia, 93; L. M. Ritchie, Chevy Chase, 93; M. S. Symons, Chevy Chase, 93; J. A. Talbot, Washington, 93; Sherman Phillips, Bannockburn, 93; W. R. Garrett, Bannockburn, 93; C. B. Asher, Columbia, 94; W. H. Kautner, Chevy Chase, 95; Robinson White, Columbia, 95; John I. Power, Washington, 97; Charles H. Baker, Washington, 98.

George S. Lyon of Columbia reached the turn in 42, while Marshall Whitlatch of Chevy Chase, a former District champion, reached the turn in 43.

The scores all along the line this morning were correspondingly high, and it was expected that a card of 86 or better would qualify in the first sixteen, while probably 95 will make the last sixteen.

200 Leading Golfers
Start in Qualifying
Round at Chevy Chase

Two hundred golfers, comprising the cream of the District and numbering at least a half dozen stars from places outside of Washington, started today in the qualifying round of what promises to be one of the finest invitation golf tournaments ever held by the Chevy Chase Club. With a course in perfect condition, the golfers were expected to score low today, although the rain, which threatened rain at any moment, would slow up the course considerably and perhaps raise the scores.

With a good contest promised, the golfers were expected to score low today, although the rain, which threatened rain at any moment, would slow up the course considerably and perhaps raise the scores.

Good Contest Promised.
With such fine players as George Lyon, former Canadian champion; Frank Thompson of Canada, the present Dominion champion; Robert S. Kautner of Chevy Chase, a former champion of the District, and the entire contingent of local stars, led by Guy M. Stalter, the President of the club, the tournament promises to produce the best amateur golf seen about Washington in recent years.

Lyon and Thompson played yesterday afternoon with J. D. Montgomery and Harry Coulson, the other visiting Canadians. President Harding and party also played in a four-ball match, and George B. Christian, Jr., secretary to the President, played and lost behind the presidential party. A rain which came up when the party had passed the ball caused postponement of the game.

Club Contingent Strong.
Russell Smith, winner of the event last year, is not entered this year, but there are other players just as capable who are figured to play a fine game when the match play rounds start tomorrow morning.

The contingent representing the Chevy Chase Club is a strong one, headed by Walter E. Truckner, a former District champion, and also by Marshall Whitlatch, former District champion, also ranked as a possible tournament winner.

TEN DAYS TO PAY TAX
AND OFFICE CROWDED

Collector Completes Mailing of Bills on Personality—Open
8 A.M. to 2 P.M.

Ten more days in which to pay those real estate and personal property taxes.

Although there has been a steady stream of property owners to the collector at the District building since May 1, the great majority of citizens are following the usual course of waiting until the end of the month.

Every taxpayer has the right to wait until May 15, if he desires, but on that day he probably will find himself standing in a long line of other contributors to the municipal purse.

Under the daylight saving the tax office is now open from 8 until 2 o'clock, and all who can get to the District building before the last few days will avoid the inconvenience of standing in line.

All the personal tax bills have been mailed out. Real estate bills are not sent by mail except upon written request, accompanied by a return envelope. The tax office has been swamped with letters requesting real estate bills and in a few days the collector probably will announce that no more requests will be received for the mailing of bills.
